Description

Visual Studio is one of the most popular code editors in the world. This license activates the "Pro" version that unlocks all the software features.

Visual Studio 2022, as a 64-bit application, offers superior performance and scalability compared to Visual Studio 2019, improving the management of large projects and memory usage. It includes a more modern user interface, better support for the latest technologies and languages, advanced debugging tools, improved integration with Git and GitHub, and advanced IntelliCode capabilities based on artificial intelligence. Additionally, it provides better tools for team collaboration and remote development, making it more suitable for modern and complex projects.
